

Asian Foundation for Philanthropy with Business Link East Midlands invites you to:
Being successful by being ethical:
Asian women in business Part 2

Speaker Profiles:

Shazia Saleem, an ethical fashion designer was one of the participants of the award winning Shared Talent India. Shazia incorporates ethical working in all aspects of her business, from her business cards to her materials.

Sital Punja, launched Sari in November 2002 as a project recycling saris into accessories to raise money for children in developing countries. The project has grown into an ethical label that represents a passion for combining good design with ethical values.

Find out how your business can be more successful and ethical.

DATE: Thursday, 8th July 2010

VENUE: Kayal Restaurant, 153, Granby Street
LE1 6FE Leicester (map)

START TIME: 6pm, dinner included
email: sheetal.shah@affp.org.uk to book your FREE place

Calling all Asian Business women

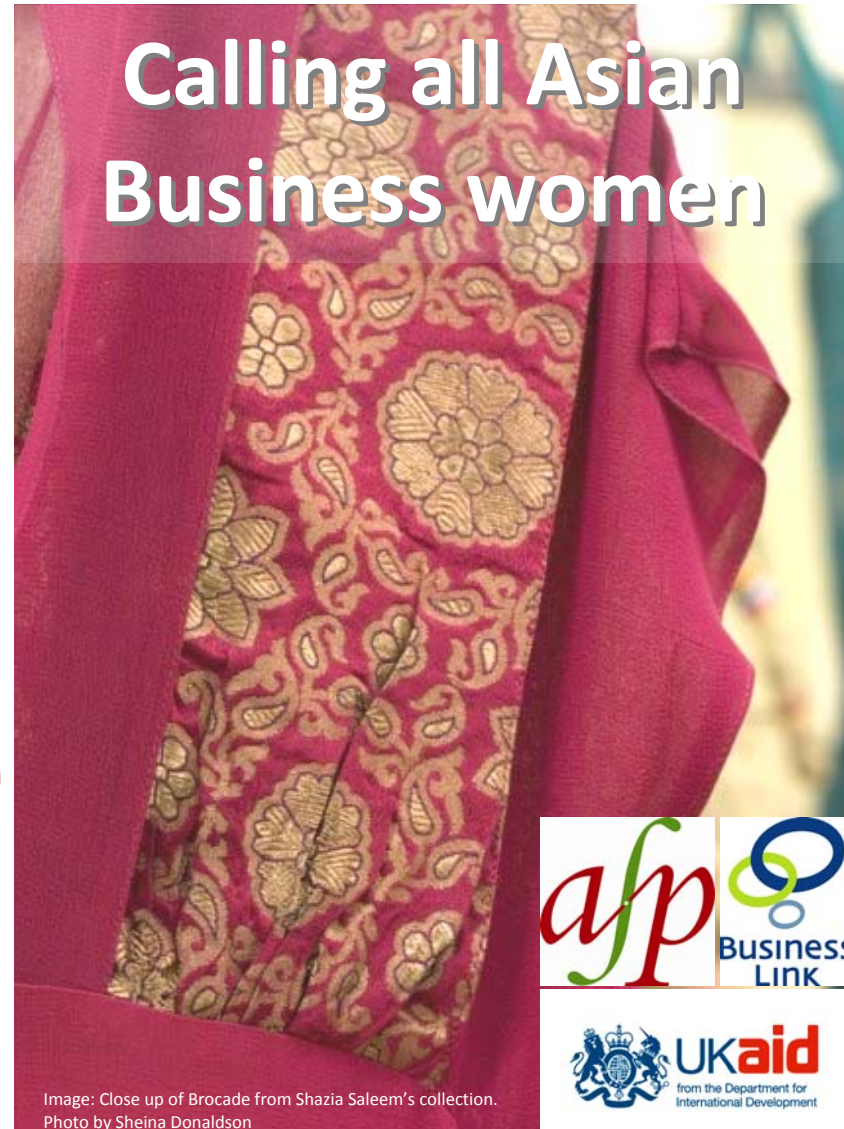

Image: Close up of Brocade from Shazia Saleem's collection.
Photo by Sheina Donaldson

