

Sometimes it only takes one.

It begins with one.
One slap. One kick. One punch.

18 women a day die in Gujarat as a result of domestic violence. That is just the official figure.

But all it takes is one woman to become a leader and change it all.

Come and hear one inspirational woman, Dr Ilaben Pathak, founder of Ahmedabad Women's Action Group (AWAG) talk about the courage of such women. Hear how domestic violence is threatening India's development and why we all need to value the role of women in society.

Date: Thursday 12th Jan 2012 6.30pm-8pm

Location: Development House, 56-64 Leonard St, EC2A 4LT

Light refreshments available

Email: gyaanyatra@affp.org.uk to reserve your place

Photo courtesy of Blossom Carrasco

